RICHLAND LIBRARY PARTNERS WITH TURNING PAGES SC

Groundbreaking Collaboration Aimed at Empowering Adult Learners

(Columbia, SC) - Richland County residents can now access free, personalized one-on-one reading tutoring services in a comfortable and supportive environment at one of Richland Library's 13 locations thanks to a partnership with Turning Pages SC aimed at revolutionizing adult literacy in our community.

This partnership opens doors to a host of benefits for both the Turning Pages SC tutors and their adult learners by creating an ideal learning environment surrounded by a wealth of literary resources.

Turning Pages SC and Richland Library share a common vision of improving adult literacy and empowering adults to enhance their reading skills, gain confidence, and achieve their goals.

Richland Library's Chief Equity and Engagement Officer Tamara King, shared her enthusiasm for the collaboration, stating, "Literacy is the great equalizer and helps to foster growth and success in our community. Partnering with Turning Pages SC is an active step toward increasing vital access to education for Richland County residents of all ages and enhancing the quality of life for us all."

Turning Pages SC provides over 50 free hours annually of reading tutoring services and a comprehensive curriculum to any adult who reads below a 9th-grade level.
